

Ideas for including your position as a MOTHER at mowom in your LinkedIn

First, choose the term that you feel best represents you from these:

- Mother
- Mother and educator
- Mother and home manager
- Mother and life designer

Next, choose 5 tasks that you regularly perform in this role from all the ones we suggest.

Managing family projects that involve planning/coordinating daily activities and events.

Analyzing household data to optimize the family budget and resources.

Promoting early learning and development by teaching basic and advanced skills at different stages of growth.

Organizing educational and recreational activities that foster continuous learning and creativity.

Managing family well-being through the planning and preparation of healthy meals and promoting physical activities.

Monitoring the health and physical development of children through regular check-ups and physical activities.

Implementing efficient organizational systems to maximize productivity and reduce stress at home.

Coordinating and executing family events and gatherings, handling all logistical aspects.

Launching and managing family projects such as second-hand clothing sales, community activities, or small home-based business initiatives.

Supervising the financial education of children, teaching them about saving, investing, and financial responsibility.

And now choose the 3 skills you believe you have developed the most during this stage from the following:

Effective Communication: Ability to convey information clearly and listen actively, facilitating conflict resolution and coordination of activities.

Time Management: Skill to prioritize tasks and manage multiple responsibilities efficiently.

Problem Solving: Ability to identify problems and develop effective solutions under pressure.

Empathy: Understanding and managing one's own and others' emotions, fostering positive interpersonal relationships.

Adaptability: Ability to adjust to changes and new circumstances proactively and effectively.

Creativity: Ability to generate original ideas and innovative solutions to solve problems.

You're doing great!

Now, do you feel like something is missing?
Feel free to draft a new original point for yourself.
